

THE RED MILE 2003 POLICY FOR VETERINARIANS

1. Veterinarians practicing at The Red Mile must be licensed by the KBVP & KRC, approved by The Red Mile and will be issued an identification sticker to be visible on their vehicle at all times. Practicing without approval may result in immediate expulsion.
2. Veterinarians are required to sign in and out at The Red Mile stable gate and maintain a "KRC Veterinary Report of Horses Treated" to be submitted to the KRC veterinarian daily.
3. Veterinarians practicing at The Red Mile do so with the understanding that by KRC rules, horses entered to race at The Red Mile may receive no treatment or medication within 24 hours of post time of the race in which said horse is scheduled to participate.
4. All veterinarians practicing at The Red Mile are responsible for safe disposal of all medical waste (sharps, empty vials, etc.)

Any Violation of These Rules May Result in the Scratch of Any Horse in Question, Fines, Suspension and/or Expulsion
